COVER

We usually like to go for the striking and/or quirky on the cover – after a year of Covid we are of the view that calm and comfortable is more the go. Let's get on with what we do best, producing and exporting a high quality, safe and sustainable commodity that helps feed the world. And let's take pride in doing that – after all, we are the best farmers in the world. Well yes, the Kiwis are pretty good too but most of them are over here any way so that's OK.
